The shop theft

Last Sunday, my friends and I went to a pet shop to buy a pet. There were many lovely pets such as rabbits, dogs and cats. I was happy. When a robber came into the pet shop, we were looking at the pets.

We were sitting on the floor when the robber grabbed a brown dog. We were so scared because he had a knife. My friends shouted loudly, 'Who can help us?'

The robber went back outside quickly after he got the dog. He was running away when the shopkeeper saw this, so he chased after the robber.

Finally, I called the police immediately. The ambulance came after a few minutes and caught the robber. I was walking away when the policeman praised me, 'You are a brave boy!' I felt delighted and had learnt a lesson, when facing a problem, don't be afraid.

A shop theft

On Sunday afternoon, I went to a pet shop. There were a few customers. I was looking at the pet when a weirdly dressed woman came in the shop. She was wearing a cap, a mask and a pair of sunglasses.

The woman kept looking at the pets. Suddenly, the woman took out a knife. The customers were sitting on the floor when the robber grabbed a dog. No one dared to call the police because the robber had a knife on her hand. We were scared.

The robber was running quickly while the shopkeeper was running after her. The shopkeeper called the police. The police saw the robber and arrested her. Finally, the police gave the dog back to the shopkeeper. The shopkeeper was very happy.

A shop theft

Last week, Anne went to a pet shop. She was choosing a dog when the robber came in the pet shop.

Then, the robber was grabbing the dogs while Anne and other people were sitting down on the floor. Anne was scared. The robber escaped and the shopkeeper was running after the robber when a citizen called the police.

Finally, the citizen, who saw the robber, called the police and caught the thief. In order to compensate the customers, the shopkeeper offered them 30% discount for food and toys. Anne was delighted.

I have changed

Sunday, 25th June

Sunny

Today was my birthday. The weather was fine. My parents were free today. Therefore, we went to Disneyland to celebrate my birthday.

In the morning, we went to Disneyland by MTR. I was happy. First, I saw some cartoon characters. My brother and I took photos with them. They were lovely. Then we played some exciting games. We rode on the roller coaster. It was very fast. I screamed loudly. I liked riding on it. However, my brother was scared.

We were hungry and tired after we got off the ride, so we decided to go to a restaurant to have our lunch. We ordered a lot of food such as seafood, beef and rice. The food was yummy. I enjoyed the food very much.

After the meal, we bought some souvenirs in a gift shop. We wanted to buy some T-shirts and dolls too. However, they were very expensive. At last, my mum bought me a little keychain. I was disappointed! At six o'clock, we left and went home by MTR. What a tiring but happy day!

My Dream Job

I want to be a fashion designer when I grow up. I want to be a fashion designer because it is meaningful. I am happy to let people wear beautiful clothes.

Being a fashion designer, I need to follow the fashion trends and styles. I need to be creative too! Therefore, I will learn more about fashion designs.

May Chan is my role model because she designs a lot of trendy clothes, I think they are pretty. I hope I can be an outstanding designer like May Chan.

I will put all my effort to make my dream come true.

A festival in Hong Kong

Dear Helen,

There are many festivals in Hong Kong. I want to introduce one of the festivals in Hong Kong - Chinese New Year.

Chinese New Year is the most important festival in China. It is held on 1st February this year. People clean their homes on New Year's Eve, which means sweeping away the bad luck of the past year.

During the Chinese New Year, festive food is eaten by people, such as melon seeds, sweet rice dumplings, turnip cakes and rice cakes.

During the New Year, people go to the flower markets and have reunion dinners with family members and relatives. We would greet our relatives during the New Year. Red envelopes are given to children by the adults. Dragon and lion dances are watched by people.

Chinese New Year is my favourite festival in Hong Kong because I can get lucky money and eat lots of delicious food.

Love,
Yanki Chan

Feeling unwell

I played in the rain yesterday and I got wet.

I felt weak when I got up. I had a cough and a runny nose. I also had a sore throat. I did not go to school. I saw the doctor with my mum.

The doctor's advice is to do more exercise, have rest and drink more water. To stay healthy, I should not drink cola. I should also eat vegetables. I should drink more water too.
